

Celia Czerlinski - Mercedes Benz Fashion Week spring/summer 2011 - day 1 06 Jul

Mercedes-Benz Fashion Week · Berlin · spring · summer · 2012

This time the designer have the chance to show their collection in a much more independent way, called the Studio. The first who showed its collection here was the leather accessorie designer Celia Czerlinski. Her credo is the use of best materials. For her designs she uses exclusively calfskin. The name of this collection is LITTLE ONES. It assures with simplicity in form and exclusiveness when it's about colours and materials. So we saw pieces in white, pink, blue and green. Here you can find the perfect piece for each event. Besides you have to take a look on the wonderful details in metal and the stitchings. A pretty and timeless collection.

Finde uns auf Facebook

Press here for all pictures from the Mercedes Benz Fashion Week Berlin autumn/winter 2011/12

Looks we found

Here you see the latest looks we found for you on the streets.

